

Sponsored by:
Lone Star Day Program

Autism and ABA for Parents

Join us: OCTOBER 2, 2020

From 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM

Hosted at Cross Brand Cowboy Church
11915 FM 2015, Tyler, TX 75708

HOW TO IDENTIFY THE ISSUES

We know that communication with your child is critical for success.
Learn communication skills from the professionals

COULD IT BE AUTISM

9:00-10:30 by Jess Allen, M.Ed., BCBA, LBA-TX

- Learn the signs that could help you understand the real issues

FUNDAMENTALS OF ABA

10:45-12:15 by Kelly Bivens, M.Ed., BCBA, LBA-TX

- Learn about ABA-Applied Behavior Analysis and how it can help

12:15-1:15 LUNCH- to receive complimentary lunch provided by Lone Star Day Program, RSVP to belinda@lonestardayprogram.com by 9/25/20

NAVIGATING CHALLENGING BEHAVIOR

1:15-2:45 by Christina Martin, CCC-SLP, BCBA & Jess Allen, M.Ed., BCBA, LBA-TX

- Challenging behaviors can be some of the most stressful features of autism. Families may experience harm, stress isolation and burn out. Learn how to address some of the most common challenging behaviors and support a safe and healthy quality of life.

DEVELOPING COMMUNICATION

3:00-4:30 by Christina Martin, CCC-SLP, BCBA

- Communication impairments are inherent in the diagnosis of Autism, and these individuals may be minimally verbal or even Non-verbal. Learn how to create a strong foundation for future Language development with the selection of first words.

14623 FM 849
Tyler, TX 75706

430-235-2089

lonestardayprogram.com

For more information contact
Belinda at 430-235-2089